THE great reputation, acquired by the late SAMUEL TYSSEN, ESQ. as a Collector of Coins and Medals, both ancient and modern, is ſo univerſally acknowledged, and ſo firmly eſtabliſhed, that it ſeems almoſt unneceſſary to dwell, a ſingle moment, upon the extent and value of the Cabinet, now offered to the Public, which, it may be truly ſaid, is rich beyond all example. To a fortune extremely ample Mr. Tyſſen added the moſt indefatigable perſeverance, by which ſcarcely a day was ſuffered to elapſe, without ſome addition being made to his Collection; nor, in the zeal which he ſhewed for attainments of this kind, was any expenſe ſpared, for if his wealth and induſtry were alike notorious, ſo was his liberality equally conſpicuous. In addition to the immenſe number of ſingle articles, which his own judgment enabled him to purchaſe at ſales and of private hands, throughout a long and unremitted attention to numiſmatic purſuits, his Cabinet became gradually enriched by three of the moſt elegant and important collections, which have ever been formed, by individual exertion at leaſt, in this country. After what has been ſaid, it may be almoſt ſuperfluous to mention the collections of Edward Solly, Eſq. the Rev. Richard Southgate, and Edward Hodſoll, Eſq. collections ſufficient, of themſelves, to confer the higheſt celebrity upon any cabinet, in which they were united. But theſe were not the only aids, of which Mr. Tyſſen availed himſelf; numberleſs other parcels of Coins and Medals were alſo bought by him, both at home and on the continent; ſo that, the collection in its preſent accumulated ſtate, contains the conſolidated labours of many lives, and now affords an infinitely larger and richer aſſemblage of medallic treaſures, than was ever yet ſold by public ſale in any part of Europe. In the following Catalogue care has been taken, that the beſt only of every ſpecimen ſhould be inſerted; the others having been invariably conſigned to the furnace. Having ſtated this, it only remains to be added, that, whatever was the extent and the value of Mr. Tyſſen's collection, the whole of it is now ſubmitted, without any reſerve, to the Public, with the exception only of what has been converted into bullion, and of the ſeries of Ancient Britiſh and Saxon Coins, which latter have been purchaſed by the Britiſh Muſeum, a repoſitory of all others the moſt fit for ſo noble, and, in this country, ſo intereſting a ſuite: and the Public are highly indebted to the Truſtees for the zeal and vigilance, which, upon this occaſion they have manifeſted, for the honor and intereſt of the Houſe, over which they ſo worthily preſide, and for the ſignal benefit which they have thus conferred upon the nation at large.
